

John Milligan Joins Philadelphia Chamber Panel to Discuss Best Practices in Nonprofit Board Governance

April 21, 2010

8:00 AM – 8:30 AM Registration

8:30 AM – 11:00 AM Program

Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce
DiBona Room
200 South Broad Street; 7th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19102

*Click here for a copy of the moderator's presentation Practical Advice for Effective Boards.*

Join your colleagues for an informative discussion about the importance of an effective nonprofit board. As we emerge from the recession, good leadership and careful oversight are more important than ever before. A panel of experts will explore issues such as best practices for board development, board engagement, organizational planning and financial governance. The agenda includes time for an open discussion and networking session.

Keynote & Moderator: Trudie Bruner Rowello, Chief Operating Officer, Fernley & Fernley

Panelists

- William H. Haines, IV, Senior-Vice President, Director of Client Services, Pennsylvania Trust
- Jeffrey A. Jacobs, Esq., Assistant General Counsel, Comcast Corporation; Board Chairman, Center City Opera
- John Milligan, CPA, Managing Partner, Milligan & Company, LLC ; Board Treasurer, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia